VACANCIES FOR SNODLAND TOWN COUNCILLORS

Snodland Town Council currently has two vacancies on the Town Council and current members would like to co-opt new councillors to join them.

To qualify for membership of the Council, prospective candidates must be over 18 and either;

a) are on the Electoral Roll of the town
b) have owned or rented land in the town for twelve months
c) have worked in the town for twelve months
d) have lived in the town or within three miles (4.8km) of the town boundary for twelve months.

If you are interested in helping to improve the quality of life of your community, Snodland Council would like to hear from you.

Applications Packs are available on our website or alternatively please email enquiries@snodlandcouncil.co.uk for an Application Pack.

Completed forms must be returned to the Town Council Offices no later than Friday 11 February 2022

A Full Council meeting will be held on Thursday 24 February which prospective candidates will attend and have the opportunity to introduce themselves to Councillors, to give information on their background and experience and explain why they wish to become a member of the Council.
